Novice Class – Koi Competition

Hobbyists who have never shown fish in a show before are eligible to enter the NOVICE CLASS. Fish dealers* and their families are prohibited from showing fish in this competition. Entrant must choose either Novice or regular competition. All fish will be entered in only one level of competition. All sizes and varieties will be judged in one group. Entrants can be present during judging for learning the qualities and identification of their Koi. In this case only, open communication between entrants and the judges is encouraged.

Pre-show Preparations

1. Very Important: For the protection of your fish, feeding should be discontinued for a minimum of 5 days prior to the show. Fish that are digesting food need more oxygen and are more easily stressed. Additionally, fish waste fouls the water in the show tanks, making viewing difficult.
2. Examine all fish carefully. Sick fish will be disqualified. Be sure that your fish are in good health. Fish with any signs of sickness or parasites will be disqualified. For the health and safety of your fish, look them over carefully, top to bottom before bringing them to the show site. Even a wound or sore that is healing will disqualify. The decision of the Show Chairman or fish entry committee will be final in this situation. All disqualified fish at benching are to be removed from the show site.
3. All entrants must provide their own net(s) for each tank.
4. Panning tubs will be provided by the NWKGC for use during judging at the show.

Delivery & Removal of Fish

1. Fish check in will be available on Friday between 11:30am and 6 P.M. There will no check in or benching on Saturday prior to judging. Any koi arriving on Saturday will not be accepted or judged.
2. Each entrant will begin fish check-in according to the sequence of arrival.
3. Very Important. Each entrant must remain with their fish until the fish are measured, classified, and released into their tank(s). Entrants having multiple tanks may designate which of their fish go into which tank as long as the tank load criteria is maintained.
4. Only fish being considered for competition in the show are allowed in the show tanks at the time of judging. Any “non-competing” fish cannot be added to an entrant’s tank until judging is completed. If any new fish are added to a tank, it must stay within the fish load guidelines determined.
5. All entries will be left on exhibit for the duration of the show, until 3 p.m. Sunday. Please make your travel and flight plans accordingly.
6. All necessary and reasonable care will be taken by the NWKGC to safeguard entered fish. NO ONE IS TO HANDLE, FEED, CLEAN, ADJUST, OR CHANGE THE ENVIRONMENT OF THE FISH except the Show Chairman or Water Quality Committee.
7. No fish will be moved from the original tank it was assigned without first notifying the head of the fish entry committee and approved by the Show Chairman to ensure all is done in an orderly fashion. Fish moved without this approval will not be judged.
8. No one but the show’s water quality personnel will be allowed to add chemicals or make water changes to the tanks. If an entrant has concerns regarding their tanks water quality, they should contact the above designated person(s) for any needed action that may be required.

 Definition of a fish dealer/broker is a person or persons who sell for profit or broker fish.*

9. All necessary and reasonable care will be taken by the NWKGC to safeguard entered fish, including 24-hour monitoring. Therefore, all participants of the show will agree to hold the NWKGC, its officers, and members blameless against any loss or injury to the fish. Anyone wishing to inspect their fish must contact the Show Chairman, the Water Quality Coordinator, or the head of the fish entry committee.

Judging

1. Prior to judging, all fish will be examined and certified by the fish entry committee to be in the proper size and class. If an error is made, corrections of classification will be made during judging, if possible, without disrupting the flow of the show. This will not include optional classifying of gin rin. The entrant must make the class placement decision on gin rin at the time of check-in, rather than after viewing the competition.
2. Fish determined unhealthy will be disqualified from competition.
3. Judging will begin at approximately 10 a.m Saturday morning.
4. During the judging, entrants and spectators will be allowed to observe and listen to the judges' comments, however, no communications whatsoever with the judges is permitted. Any individual in violation of the ruling will be asked to leave the area. If the violator is an entrant, this will result in his/her disqualification from the competition.
5. The decision of the judges and/or the Show Chairman is final. Any contingencies not covered by these rules will be subject to the discretion of the Show Chairman.

 Definition of a fish dealer/broker is a person or persons who sell for profit or broker fish.*
